Dear Mr. Castagnaro:

I write to thank you and your team for your leadership, support, and technical expertise in the electronic bench warrant system project. It's been a pleasure for our teams to work with yours on this important project and to see the results that technology can provide the State of Hawai'i.

Your commitment to this project through dedicating your talented resources and time is very much appreciated. You and your team provided the much needed technical expertise to deliver this project and ensure its success.

I believe that the electronic bench warrant system pilot project serves as a basis for future opportunities to leverage technology to provide great benefits for the people of Hawai'i and add operational efficiencies. I look forward to continued collaboration between our organizations.

Sincerely,
